

COMMUNITIES MATTER, CALM PRIOR

How to contact decision makers

Thank you for getting involved in Communities Matter, Calm Prior. City Council is tentatively scheduled to vote on Oct. 2 on where to put a rail overpass and Flats Arterial. One important way you can influence their decision is to let them know how it will impact you, your family and your neighbourhood. Take the time to craft an e-mail that expresses why you want to see Prior calmed and the decision of the Community Panel respected. Send it to all ten city councillors, the mayor and the city manager using their e-mails below:

1. Rebecca Bligh, NPA. CLRbligh@vancouver.ca
2. Christine Boyle, OneCity. CLRboyle@vancouver.ca

The Flats Arterial decision is one part of a National Trade Corridor project that is being spearheaded by the Federal Ministry of Transportation, CN Rail and the Vancouver Fraser Port Authority, with very little consultation with residents or the city of Vancouver. So it will also help to let them know how you feel about the project overall.

1. CN Rail. Joslyn Young, Manager of Public Affairs. joslyn.young@cn.ca
2. Vancouver Fraser Port Authority. Duncan Wilson, VP Environment, Community and Government Affairs. Duncan.Wilson@portvancouver.com

Finally, you can contact local media. You can write a letter to the editor, which may be published online or in print media. These are 150-word letters, which provide a strong opinion. Be sure to include your full name, address, daytime telephone number, and the word “Letter” in your subject line. If your letter is selected for publication, only your name will be published. You can send your letters to:

1. Vancouver Sun. sunletters@vancouversun.com
2. Georgia Straight. letters@straight.com
3. Vancouver Star. lettertoed@thestar.ca
